NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

MONDAY, JUNE 23, 1846.

From Saturday's Second Edition.

SHOCKING—WRECK OF THE BRIG SUTLEDGE, OF PICTOU, N. S.—THIRTY LIVES LOST.—The schooner Dusky Sally, Capt. Wilder, of Hingham, arrived at Stevens' Wharf this morning at about 9 1-2 o'clock, bringing the sad intelligence of the loss of the brig Sutledge, Capt. Graham, together, with THIRTY LIVES.

The brig was from Pictou, bound to Fall River, and had on board about seventy souls. The passengers were partly Scotch, and were families in comfortable circumstances, bound from their homes to the State of Maryland, where they were going to work in some of the mining establishments.

The brig struck on the "Sow and Pigs," a cluster of rocks about 30 miles from this place, between Guy Head and Cuddyhook, at 1-4 past 3 o'clock, this morning.

The schooner which brought the unfortunate people in, was in sight at the time, and repaired forthwith to their assistance. She went down immediately after striking, and had the schooner been a little nearer, all might have been saved.

It is a most melancholy catastrophe, and has cast a gloom over our citizens, which it is impossible to describe.

Below, we give a list of those who have been saved, and also of those who are lost, which we obtained from one of the passengers; two of the names we have been unable to obtain in full.

LOST.—Margaret Bowie, Christie Bowie, Mary Howie, Alexander Bowie, James Bowie, Jennie Howie, (all children of the lady who was saved,) Elizabeth Howat, Agnes Howat, Margaret Farkin, Peter Farkin, Margaret Farkin, (daughter,) Jane Love, (mother,) Alexander Love, Jesse Love, Margaret McMillen, (mother,) Elizabeth McMillen, Ann McMillen, Hugh McMillen, William McMillen, Jennet McMillen, Robert McMillen, Margaret Denoon, Marion Denoon, Mary Denoon, Daniel McLean, William Frazier, Sarah Frazier, Ann Catharine Frazier, Efy Wier, Joanna Gream—30.

Another vessel came up, very soon after the disaster, and she remained to pick up such bodies as the schooner Dusky Sally did not get,—and also to save such property as they could; she will probably arrive here in the course of the day. It was with great difficulty that the wreck could be reached, as the schooner could not approach very near to the rocks, and it was dangerous for the boats to get too close in, as there was danger of their being swamped.

The wharf, where the vessel arrived, was densely crowded with people, and every assistance was rendered these unfortunate emigrants; those who were alive, were in a very feeble condition, and many of them could hardly walk, from the effects of exhaustion, having been in the water so long. They were all taken to various houses near by, where dry clothes were furnished them, and food supplied. An Inquest was held on the dead, and all the necessary arrangements will be made for their burial. We have no time to say anything further. It is a most heart-rending calamity, and the unfortunate sufferers will receive every kindness and attention from our citizens. This is another fearful warning of the dreadful uncertainty of time.

Those that escaped with their lives, from the wreck of the Brig Sutledge, have lost every thing they had, and in order to provide them with clothing, &c., it is proposed to take up a collection in all the churches to-morrow.

A collection will be taken up in all the churches, to-morrow afternoon, for these emigrants; and any one desiring to give anything to them, who do not intend going to church, will please send it to Benjamin B. Howland, Esq., Town Clerk, and it will immediately be delivered to them. Certainly our charities will be liberal on this mournful occasion.

HOME.

Is there a place that can impart
Blest visions to the aching heart?
Is there a place whose image dear
Can soothe our grief, dispell our fear?
That place is home.

The exile, far in distant climes,
 Oft, oft remembers by-gone times,
 And o'er whatever land he roves,
 Remember still the land he loves—
 Remembers home.

Whatever hardships be our lot,
 Still home's the treasure of the heart?
 Whatever can our bosom cheer,
 Whatever we regard as dear,
 Is found in home, sweet home.

A fond girl, in order to prevent her lover from going to the war, threw a basin of hot water on his foot the day before his company (the Cincinnati Grays) was to march. But he bound up his walker, and marched with the rest, the poor girl declaring that she "meant it all in kindness."

LOVE'S STRATAGEM.—A couple of handsome young lovers, from the quiet city of Roger Williams, left home and friends behind them last Saturday evening, and slyly took passage for New York, where they arrived on Sunday morning, and took rooms at the Astor House, which ever opens its hospitable doors with a cordial welcome, as an asylum to fugitive lovers. After a "hasty" toilet, our brave Leander rang the bell, and ordered a priest, who straightway came to the rescue like a good Christian, and the happy twain, now "done" into "one flesh," sat down to a delicious breakfast, with unperturbed spirits. We can assure our young friends that they may count on the warmest sympathy, in their Providential escape, of all that portion of the human race who are on the tender side of twenty-five.—N. Y. Mirror.

A HINT TO BACHELORS.—Some sagacious philosophers, who have pondered upon the phases of human life, go so far as to deny that there is such a thing as "single blessedness." And Florian, an eminent French author, goes so far as to say, with true Milesian simplicity, "Saufrez deux, est plus doux, que d'être heureux toute seule." Or "it is sweeter to suffer together, (that is, in the society of the one you love) than to be happy alone."

VOTING IN TEXAS.—A law passed by the State Legislature, at the session just closed, declares that at all popular elections, holden hereafter in this State, each voter shall express his preference at the polls, viva voce.

SECOND EDITION.

As it was impossible to prepare a full and accurate account of the Funeral yesterday, for this morning's paper, we shall publish a second edition of the News, at 12 o'clock this day, containing full particulars of the affair, together with the amounts obtained at the different churches, yesterday, for the relief of the sufferers, &c.

At a special meeting of OCEAN LODGE, No. 5, I. O. of O. F., holden at their Hall on Saturday last, at 3 o'clock, the Lodge was called to order, and P. G. William H. Cranston arose and stated the object of the meeting, and alluded, in a very feeling and appropriate manner, to the melancholy catastrophe which had occurred almost in our midst, and which aroused the sympathies of the whole community. He also spoke in a very becoming manner of brothers Henry Wilder and Martin Wilder, the Captain and Mate of the schooner Dusky Sally, who saved the unfortunate passengers of the brig Suttle, the former of whom was present.

Brother Cranston then introduced the following resolutions, which were unanimously passed, and a committee of two appointed by the N. G.

A meeting of RHODE ISLAND LODGE, No. 12, I. O. of O. F., was holden at their Hall, the same afternoon, and similar resolutions were adopted, appropriating fifty dollars, and appointing a committee of two, to co-operate with the committee from Ocean Lodge. The same humane feeling prevailed in both Lodges, and the spirit of the above resolutions was cheerfully acquiesced in by the members of Rhode Island Lodge, they also voted to attend the funeral of those who were drowned by this shocking disaster.

Whereas, in the Providence of Almighty God, a most melancholy and heart-rending catastrophe has occurred, by the wreck of the Brig Suttle, bound from Picton, N. S., to Fall River, Mass., near Gay Head, on our coast, having on board about Seventy souls,—by which event thirty human beings have been hurried into eternity, and a large circle of relatives and friends been suddenly plunged in gloom,—therefore

Resolved, That we extend to the survivors of the wreck of said Brig, our deepest and most heart-felt sympathies for their terrible bereavement, in the severe loss which they have sustained; and that while we behold in this, another fearful admonition of the uncertainty of time, and the vanity of all human pursuits, we know that He, who "tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," will sustain these our fellow men, in this trying hour of their affliction.

Resolved, That as a Lodge, we will render the survivors every assistance in our power; during their sojourn among us; and that we will assist in the burial of the dead.

Resolved, That P. G. William H. Cranston, and V. G. Gilbert Chase, be a committee on behalf of Ocean Lodge, No. 5, I. O. of O. F., Newport, R. I., for the purpose of visiting these unfortunate people, and rendering them such assistance as is in our power, and as the exigencies of the case demand.

Resolved, That said committee be directed to draw upon the Treasurer of this Lodge, forthwith, for the sum of Fifty dollars, and present the same, without delay, to the survivors, to be distributed in such manner, as said committee deem expedient.

Resolved, That we will attend the funeral of the deceased, as a Lodge; and that our bretheren of Rhode Island Lodge be requested to join us on that mournful occasion.

Resolved, That such as this, are the true objects of Odd Fellowship; and that since the occasion affords an opportunity, melancholy as it is, to illustrate our Charity, it gives us inexpressible pleasure to extend a helping hand to the distressed.

Resolved, That our bretheren Henry Wilder, and Martin Wilder, the Captain and Mate of the Schooner Dusky Sally, members of Old Colony Lodge, No. 108, of Hingham, Mass., by whose timely assistance these people were saved, are deserving our warmest thanks, as well as of the community at large, for their noble and unremitted exertions in the cause of humanity; and that we cheerfully give them the right hand of fellowship on this occasion, and greet them as well-tried brothers, in the bonds of Friendship, Love and Truth.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the N. G. and Secretary, and a copy of the same presented to the survivors of the wreck of the Brig Suttle; and also published in the newspapers in this town.

The Lodge was then closed.

The Pawtucket Gazette is poking fun at the Providence Daily Gazette man, about that extra, containing the official despatch of "Old Rough and Ready."—Cranston's wit is getting rather low; take a pint of yeast every night, and it will have a tendency to exalt your ideas.

Mr. DILTS, of the Massachusetts, will accept our thanks for large quantities of New York, Boston and Providence papers, in advance of the mail.

THE MAN IN THE MOON is the name of new paper just issued in Philadelphia; we suppose it will be the official organ of the celestial region, from which it takes its name. We shall soon have, "Latest from the Moon, by Magnetic Telegraph."

Corporal Streeter has become the sole Proprietor of the Boston Daily Star; success to him.

The remains of Gansevoort Melville have arrived at New York, and been carried to Albany, for burial.

SHOCKING!!!—Two chickens, about sixteen years of age, have just eloped from Newark, and been married. What on earth is the matter with all the boys and girls, just at this time?

SOMETHING LIKE A JOB.—It is said that the Profits—yes, the Profits—to the printers on a single document—the Patent Office Report—ordered in immense numbers to be printed by Congress, will be ninety-five thousand dollars.

Louis Philippe has an immense private fortune; the nation allows him £500,000 per annum, and £40,000 for the little Comte de Paris, and a large allowance for the Dutchess d'Orleans. He has thirteen or fourteen palaces at his disposal, besides Neuilly and the Chateau d'Eu, which are his own private property. He is also entitled to all the firewood and timber cut in the royal forests, which are of immense extent. Since his accession to the throne, he has derived, it is said, upwards of £5,000,000 sterling from this source alone.

Wyatt, who has just been convicted of an atrocious murder at Auburn, is to be hung on the 17th of August next, between the hours of one and four, in the afternoon.

FUNNY!—Albert Pike, the poet, is Captain of a company of Flying Artillery, from Arkansas, bound to Mexico. If he should permit his mind to wander in a poetic reverie, about the time he ought to charge on the enemy, it would place matters in a sad predicament; these poets are not exactly the men to fight with powder and balls.

TERRIBLE!—Another elopement has taken place from Cincinnati; so they go.

Dr. Thomas Dunn English, a poet of some celebrity, has been using up Edgar A. Poe, the great American critic, in one of the New York papers.

WHERE IS THE HEIRESS?—HUNT HER UP.—Information is wanted, says the N. Y. News, of a lady who married one Ezra Gregory, at Detroit, on the 15th of April, 1845. The lady is entitled, by the death of Alexander Grant, at Iverness, Scotland, to a very handsome property. The property must be claimed by the 15th of next September.

Of the Providence and Worcester Railroad, the President's report, made at their little annual meeting, says:—"Nearly the whole right of way, from Providence to Worcester, has been contracted for. Contracts have also been made for grading the entire line of the road, on terms deemed favorable, and materials at fair prices, for the superstructure, have been engaged."

BEAUTIFUL.—In an account of a lost child in Missouri, going the newspaper rounds, we find a sentiment that for a simple expression of that confiding reliance on the Divine care which should characterize a believer in Providence, we have never seen surpassed. The little boy narrating the incident of his wanderings, when night came on, says, "it grew dark, and he asked God to take care of little Johnny, and went to sleep."

The Indian council at the Cattaraugus Reservation of the Seneca nation was held during three days, from June 3d, and was attended by delegates from the Alleghany, Cattaraugus and Tonawanda Reservations, U. S. commissioners, and a delegation from the society of Friends. The Indians have agreed to withdraw their women from work in the field. They are rapidly improving in their agriculture as well as in their moral and social habits. Many of them are industrious, and as there is no spirituous liquor permitted to be brought upon the Reservation, they are necessarily sober.

POTATOES.—The potatoe crop on Long Island, it is said, promises to be more than usually prolific and good.

ICE.—It is said that American ice is very scarce in London, owing to the mildness of winter. The government has established a depot at the St. Katharine docks, expressly for the American ice.

The Railroad Bridge at Harrisburgh has again been swept away by a tornado, which did immense damage to the city and the surrounding country.

The Pie Plant, or Rhubarb, is found in a rich, moist soil. It grows luxuriantly near a drain. It is propagated from the seed, or more commonly by "parting the roots." One root will make many.

It is a poor joke that went bear repeating.—The following is not as fresh as a new laid egg, but there is a good moral in it.—The world is full of similar fools:—

AN OLD MISTAKE.—An English paper tells of a country sculptor who was ordered to engrave on a tombstone the following words:—"A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband." The stone however, being small, he engraved on it, "A virtuous woman is 5s. to her husband."

THE LAST WONDER.—The Baltimore Sun contains the following account of the birth of a living child, with its heart outside of the chest. The heart is entirely outside of the body, and destitute of any pericardium. Thus even without this natural protection it is protruded from the external surface of the chest, which at that point bears a mark resembling a cicatrix, as if the flesh had been opened and pulled out, and the wound suffered to grow up again. Each pulsation, of course, can be distinctly observed, and the whole natural action of this delicate organ is made visible to the immediate investigation of the eye. The truth of the story is vouched for by the Sun, not by us.

AWFUL FIRE AT ST. JOHN'S, N. FOUNDLAND.

The whole of the city of St. John's, Newfoundland, except two stores, burned down on the 5th inst., and fifty soldiers were killed in blowing up a house to arrest the fire. Eighteen vessels were also burnt in the harbor. St. John's, N. F., contains a population of about 20,000 inhabitants. The town was burnt twice before—once in 1824, and again in 1840. It seems to be an ill-fated town. The buildings were principally of wood.

The latest case of absence of mind is recorded of a lady, about to "whip up" some eggs for sponge cake, who whipped "the baby" and sang Watts' Cradle Hymn to "the eggs."

Those who think themselves high spirited, and will bear least, are often even by that, forced to bow most, or to hurt under it while humility and meekness escape many a blow, always keeping peace within, and often without, too.—Leigher.

Newport, June 4, 1846. Attorney.

And at 12 o'clock, M., of the same day, I will sell, on the premises, at Public Auction, that valuable estate situated on Easton's Point, and next North of the estate on Washington street, formerly owned and occupied by the late Thomas Dennis, Esq., consisting of a large lot of land extending from Washington street to the harbor, with a large, well-finished dwelling house thereon. This estate was conveyed to the undersigned, by Lieut. Peter Turner, to be sold, and the proceeds thereof, to be appropriated towards the liquidation of the claims against the estate of his father, the late Dr. William Turner.

The estate is situated in the immediate vicinity of the spot contemplated for the Depot of the Newport and Fall River Rail Road, and its value will be very much increased, when that Road is commenced. The sale will be positive, at the above mentioned time. HENRY Y. CRANSTON,

10,000 DOLLARS REWARD.

You will excuse, kind reader, the above innocent deception, to induce you to read this advertisement, as it is for your benefit as well as our own.

RE-OPENING OF THE UNITED STATES CLOTHING STORE.

A still greater revolution in the sale of Ready Made Clothing. New Store and New Goods, at the old stand, where the public have been favored with so many good bargains. 91 Thames street, one door north of Messrs. W. B. & E. J. SWAN'S.

THE PROPRIETOR of this Establishment has the pleasure of informing the people of Newport and its vicinity, that he has leased the new and commodious store, 91 Thames street, for the purpose of carrying on the Ready Made Clothing Business, where the public may be assured that they will always find on hand the largest assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the place, as well as the lowest prices. If I can but induce the people to call upon me, I will give them the most positive proof of the truth of this assertion, as I am determined to secure for the United States Clothing Store a tremendous run of custom, and, aware as I am, that competition is so severe, that the only mode of success is to offer my Goods at a small advance on Cost. Will the people call upon me? I will give them the most positive and pleasing evidence of what I say; still more, I will not urge them with undue persuasion to purchase what they do not want. The custom of forcing goods upon people has become so prevalent that they are sorely perplexed to know where they can go and be allowed the use of their own judgment in selection of Goods. Once more I beseech of you to call and examine my stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of a large and good assortment of PROCK and DRESS COATS, of a variety of styles and colors; also, a large quantity of TWEED FRACK and SACK COATS; 2 or 3 dozen of the GORE MIXED TWEED, a most beautiful article for the Soldier, Kentucky Jeans, and a great variety of other kinds; too numerous to mention.

The United States Clothing Store stands unrivalled in the sale of Boys' Clothing; and I have now on hand a large assortment of blue and black Broadcloth Suits, that will fit boys from 4 years old to ten; also, a large assortment of Fancy suits of the best French Cassinere. Don't forget the number, 91 Thames street, sign of the large Window.
